

Quarterly Operations Summary

Revenue increased across all regions during the period under review.

The northern territory contributed the largest absolute gain, while the southern territory lagged because of supply constraints that persisted through the second half of the quarter.

Management expects the constraint to ease in the coming period.